Foreword

Til O'er the Wreck
Emerging from the storm
Immortal nature lifts
Her changeful form:
Mounts from her funeral
Pyre on wings of flame
And soars and shines,
Another and the same.

- Erasmus Darwin

COME WALK WITH US THROUGH NATURE'S STORM
AS WE PRESENT TO YOU THE 1965 MOGRANDAH

Mograndah:

This book is dedicated to the ideals each of us holds dear to our hearts. "Ideals are like stars. You won't succeed in touching them with your hands. But like the seafaring man on the desert of water, you choose them as your guides, - and following them - you reach your destiny."

- Carl Schurz

To the ideals you keep locked within your hearts

Administration

School Board

The citizen's arm of control and responsibility in the Grand County School District, the school board, has emerged with interested and cooperative leadership to achieve what seems best for your education. Many problems have faced this board, perhaps more than in the history of GCHS, and they have attempted to meet and solve these problems realistically. We should be proud of these leading citizens, interested in the future of Moab youth. Left to right, C. R. Sundwall, superintendent; Ralph Griffin, member; Mrs. Erma Wimmer, clerk-treasurer; John Keogh, president; J. G. Pinkerton, member; Mrs. Erma Newell, member; and Chester Brostrom, member.

As We Remember Him . . .

"No man is an island . . .
. . . Send not for whom the bell tolls,
It tolls for thee."

John Donne wrote this poem centuries ago. In our time, a man who seemed to know and live the meaning of this poem to the fullest graced our presence.

Dr. A. Ray West, former President of the Board of Education, was a man of many interests, a man ringing with enthusiasm for life and the advancement of our civilization. His interest in the students of Grand County School District transcended the material world. His service to his community, his pleasing personality, even unto his last days, his recognition of the true meaning of friendship, his professional excellence as a dentist, and his devotion to his family are a part of the living memory of Dr. West.

May the achievements of this man be burned into our existence as an example of the results of educative processes in our society.

The MOGRANDAH staff proudly dedicates this page to the memory of a great person.

Principal

If I could go back a good many years and plan my high school career once again, I can think of a good many things I would like to do differently.

I think I would have more fun--but in a more reasonable way.

I think I might look earlier and closer to discover the wisdom and real concern of some of my teachers--facts I recognize a few years late.

I think I would take a closer look at myself and plan accordingly.

Our problems are somewhat alike, yours and mine. I can't go back and live it over again, and neither can you. The difference is that my opportunity was THEN. Yours is NOW.

Rex Douglas,
Principal

Office

Behind the smiling faces and friendliness existing in the GCHS office this year, we find a complex and difficult operation at work every day. Mrs. Jean Shatley, pictured at the left, has been one of the major factors in keeping the school operating this year. Mrs. Shatley at times seemed to have the ability to do ten things at once and still keep everyone happy.

Perhaps Mr. Leonard doesn't always look this way when he's just caught you sluffing, but his performance as assistant principal has been invaluable to GCHS this year. Besides his teaching duties, he has had to assist students on the merits of attending school regularly and getting to class on time, a lesson we could all learn to our advantage.

Superintendent

On the pages of this book are depicted events at Grand County High School for the school year, 1964-65.

Pages full of the excitement. Pages bringing in pleasure to each student as he sees pictured on them the faces of friends.

Pages creating poignant nostalgia in their graphic presentation of a year now gone.

But the contents of this yearbook are more than just the history of a year ended. It is a book symbolizing the completion of a year and at the same time serving as a prelude to one to come. A milestone for the sophomore and junior marking advancement in the series of educational steps. For the senior, it is now the closing of an era from which he will progress into the "new."

For all, and as it should be, this yearbook places into memory the successes of the year leaving, the failures an unheralded part of the past.

We congratulate every student of Grand County High School for the successes they achieved. Successes as they are rightfully acclaimed in Mograndah, 1965.

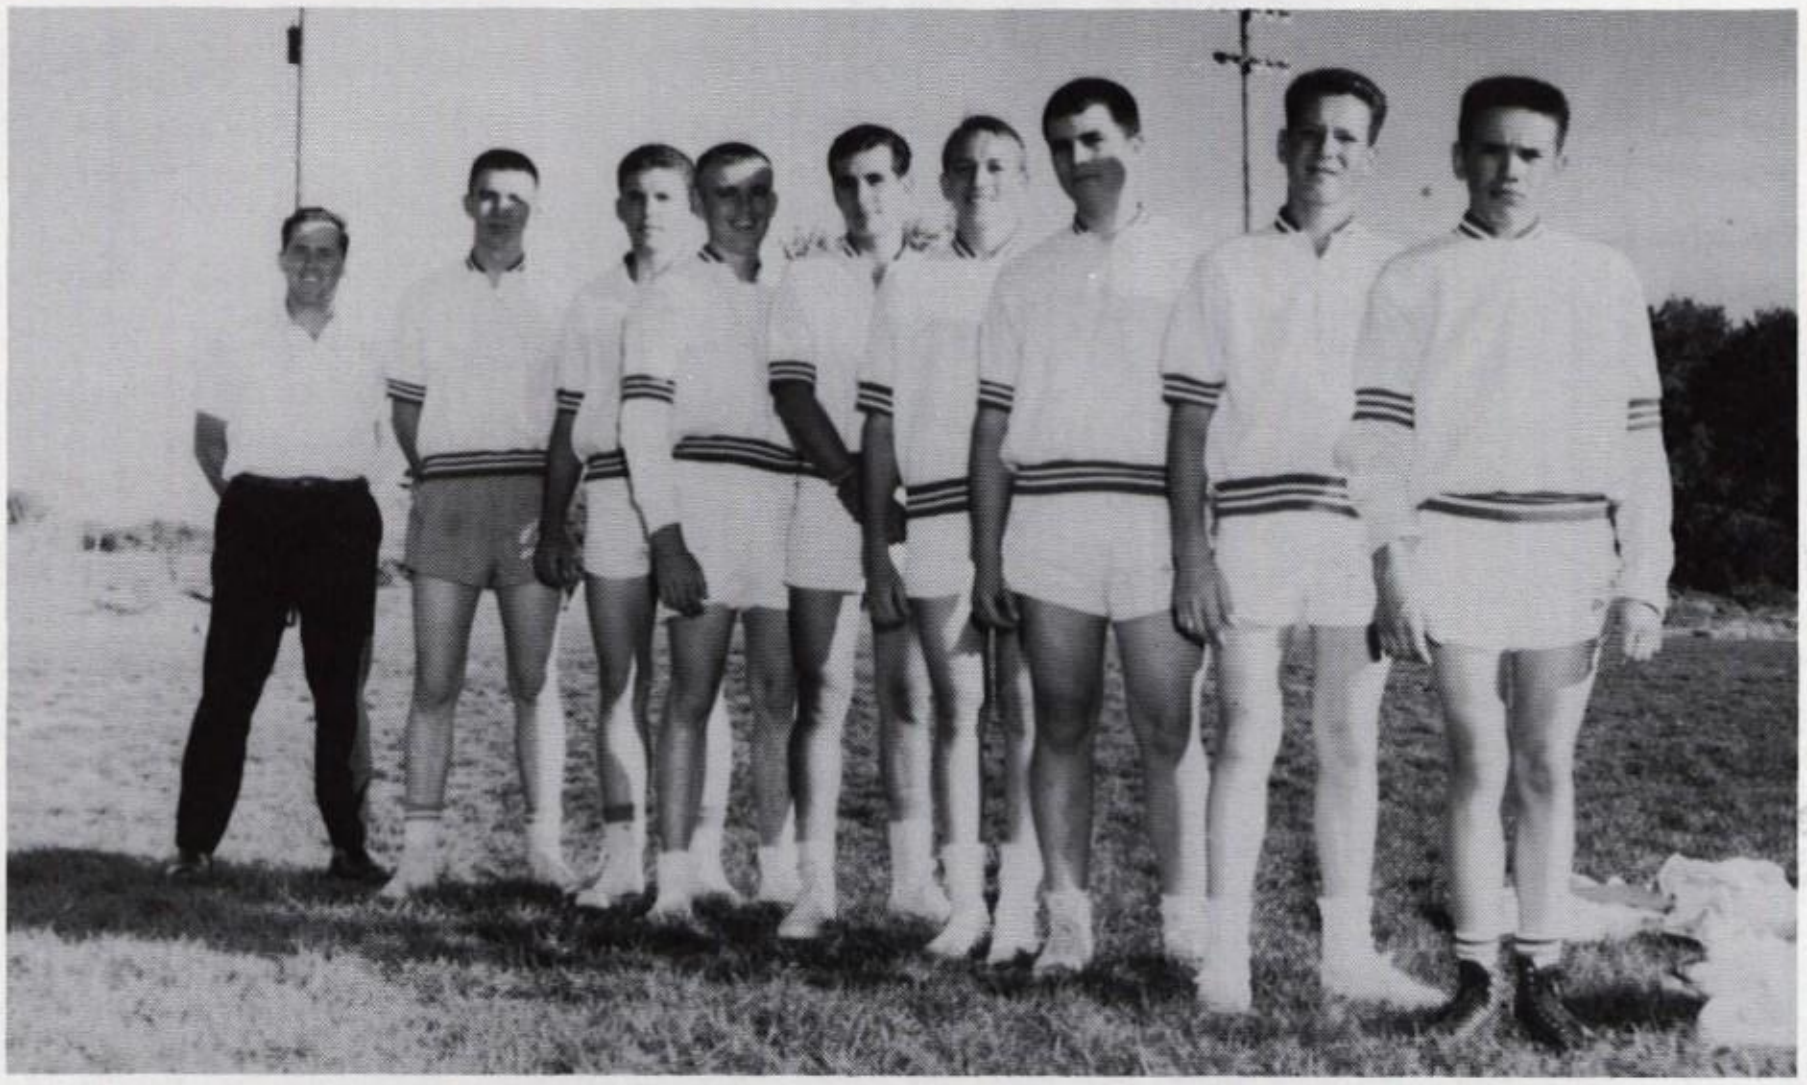
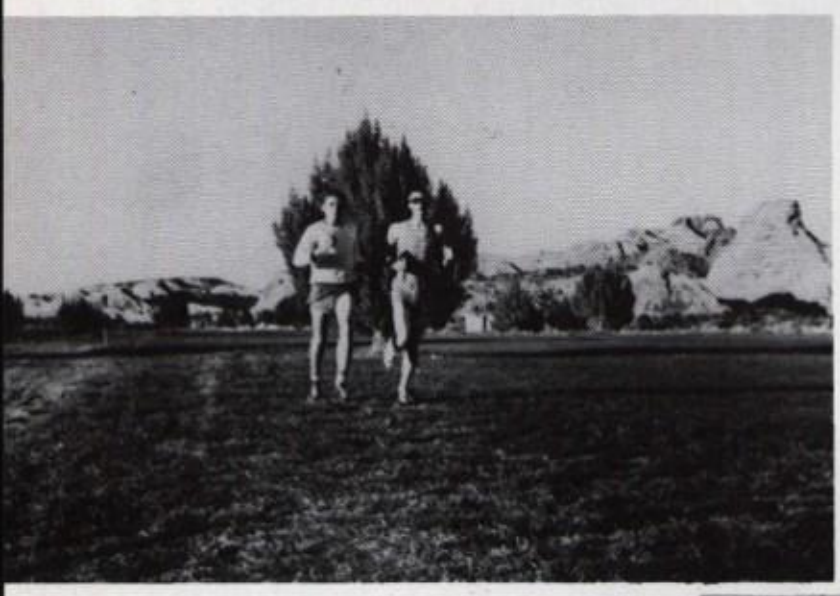
Cross Country



During a busy sports year, GCHS managed to field a cross country team, under the direction of Coach Gary Eyre. Participation was slim, but grueling tests were afforded the hardy athletes who endured this overland activity. Left to right Coach Eyre, Wayne Leystra, Gary Stubblefield, Dennis Rice, Jim Camberlang, Allan Drogemeire, John Pipkin, Jim Hayes, and Jay Murphy.



Mr. Eyre took time off as Principal of Helen M. Knight School to coach. As a former Olympic star, himself, he gave many pointers.

Dedication

Mr. Ken Wilson, music instructor at the High School last year, was well-liked by his students and his fellow faculty members. His concern for the student was always foremost in his mind.

His talents in music were innumerable and he was able to convey a keen sense of the musical art to his students.

School had just completed for the 1963-64 year, when Mr. Wilson met his destiny in an automobile accident near Delta, Colorado.

Many GCHS students remember and respect him well.

His family surviving him may be proud of the accomplishments he made in the school district.

The MOGRANDAH staff proudly dedicates this page to the memory of Mr. Wilson.
